It is considered not unlikely that the President's courage may be terribly tried before New Years, as his intimation in his Message that revenue laws must be enforced at Charleston, will be pressed home on him by the North. Senator Douglas is bold, and inflexibly for the Union. JERRY BLACK.

Southern men have ruined Jerry Black's Bench. They accuse him of penning offensive portions of the messge, and if the President should appoint him the South will opose, and rejection would follow .-Douglas' friends are in ecstacies.

HOW CONGRESSMEN TALK.

Senator Trumbull will not confess that sccession is likely, excepting perhaps in the case of South Carolina, she being lunatic, and therefore an exception to all laws. He says there is a flurry, it will blow over. Senator Wade recognizes the facts, is ready to treat them as facts, and says the North has nothing to do but proceed as she ever

Senator Seward's position is in dispute.

The logic of his career has a duplex interpretion. One party says he will yield too much to the South, notwithstanding his "irrepressible" speeches. Thurlow Weed's recessive articles confirm this impression. because his intimacy with Seward seems to indicate that they are acting in concert, and that the utterances of the Albany Evening Journal are the echoes of Sew-ard's complicity with Weed's recession, and contend that he will, as usual, lead the has been unchanged in its construction for Republicans in the line of rigid principle. upwards of two hundred and fifty years, But a general impression obtains that he will assume the role of pacificator. THE MODE OF EXAMINATION Pursued by Dr Wadworth is very simple and entirely new, and by it disease of any of the internal vital organs is in a very few minutes detected with facility and certainty without asking the patient a question or having the least previous knowledge of the case.

Dr. W. gives his undivided attention to all forms of chronic disease, treating thousants of different cases every vear, a large endjority of whom have tried most other methods of cure in vain. Dr W. wishes it distinctly understood that he makes no speciality of one disease, but professes to understand the whole human system, and is constantly demonstrating this knowledge by describing to those who consult him the location, mature and curability of their diseases, without any questions.

Those Suffering from Chronic Diseases of any description, may be assured that their cases will be treated fairly and canddily, and they will not be encouraged to take medicine without a corresponding prospect of benefit. Dr. W has visted Cleveband and other places in Ohio and New York, regularly, for the last two years, and can furnish patients with any amount of evidence in regard to his skill and qualifications as a physician.

Those wishing to consult by letter, may direct to Batavia, N. Y., or to the care of the Hotel at any of my appointments.
